

Biography of Fredrick Steelman, ACN 557789
P-296808

Submitted by Richard A. McGeary (180419)
President, Continental Congress Chapter, Pennsylvania Society

Private Frederick Steelman, although of advanced age, served in the Gloucester County Militia, New Jersey. He was born about 1718 and died of unknown causes in Great Egg Harbor, New Jersey, sometime during the Revolution. Private Steelman was married to Sarah Somers and was the father of patriot James Steelman. He descended from the early Swedish settlers in the Delaware River area.