

The Newsmagazine of Long Beach Island and Southern Ocean County

Revolutionary War Author Speaking at Manahawkin's Old Baptist Church

May 10, 2023

By Maria Scandale

LOOK BACK: Check out Jim Stempel's talk at the Old Baptist Church in Manahawkin.(Supplied Photo)

The Enemy Harassed is about George Washington's New Jersey campaign of 1777, and the author who will be speaking May 20 at the Old Baptist Church in Manahawkin was nominated for the James Fenimore Cooper Prize for a previous novel, Ablemarle.

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. If you continue to use this site we will assume that you are happy with it.

Ok

War.

Stempel's nonfiction work Valley Forge to Monmouth: Six Transformative Months of the American Revolution brought him high praise.

Attendees can buy their books beforehand at a bookstore or on Amazon.com and bring them to have the author autograph. (No books will be there at the event to purchase.)

The Baptist church is located at 120 North Main St. (Route 9).

The talk is sponsored by the Capt. Joshua Huddy Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Col. Richard Somers Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution. —M.S.

Related Stories by The SandPaper

Go To The Arts Section

Ceremony to Mark Graves of Local Revolutionary War Patriots

Area patriots are being remembered 194 years later in a Sign Dedication and Revolutionary War Patriot Grave Marking Ceremony in...

Manasquan Bank Executive a Top Producer Nationally

Manasquan Bank is proud to announce that Ralph G. Tancredi Sr., senior vice president and residential lending sales manager, was...

Washington's Delaware Crossing Is Topic of Talk

George Washington's crossing of the Delaware River led to three quick victories that changed the colonies' fortunes in the War...

Load More

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. If you continue to use this site we will assume that you are happy with it.

Ok