

Freda Heintz

Heintz, Freda V., - 77, of Mays Landing, passed away on October 23, 2023. Freda was born in Egg Harbor City and was a long-time resident of Egg Harbor Township, most recently residing in Mays Landing. Freda was an accountant at Spencer Gifts for several years until starting the family business, George E. Bird Plumbing and Heating. She enjoyed long nature hikes through the many trails and roads in the Pinelands of South Jersey. She was a proud member of D.A.R. General Lafayette Chapter, as well as a volunteer librarian at the Atlantic County Historical Society. Freda was deeply involved in her genealogy and ancestral tree for many years. A passion for nature from childhood, Freda most recently enjoyed an increasing interest in geology and botany. Freda is predeceased by her father Frederick Russell Heintz, her daughter Michele Bird, and her sister Bertha Mattle. Freda is survived by her mother Hannah L. Heintz, her son George Bird (Teresa), her daughter, Jennifer Bird, her sisters, Darlene (Ray), Bonnie (Bob), her grandchildren, Jordan, Danny, Matthew, Degan, Myles, a great-granddaughter, Theodora, her niece Melanie Cradock (Marshall) as well as many more loving nieces and nephews and extended family.

Services will be private and interment held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers please make donations to the Atlantic County Historical Society in her name.
